

Posterior standard deviation is generally low for unknown mixture estimates

